

OUR WINE FROM THE MOSELLE

The Moselle region is Germany's oldest wine region and one of the most famous European wine-growing regions. The Moselle river and its tributaries Saar and Ruwer flow through a region in which Celts and Romans already planted vines and produced wine more than 2000 years ago. The steep slopes of the river valleys are densely planted with vines. They shape the area like hardly any other wine landscape in the world.

From the Luxembourg border to the mouth of the river Rhine in Koblenz, the Moselle river flows around 250 kilometers through Germany. The Moselle vineyards lie along both sides of the river and along its tributaries Saar and Ruwer. When the rivers dug deep into the Rhenish Slate Mountains millions of years ago, the conditions for the high level and unmistakable character of the Moselle wines were set out. The special climate of the river valleys and the slate soils of the vineyards are the basis for the distinctive, mineral Rieslings of the region.

OUR CHAMPAGNE

Louis Roederer

Louis Roederer is the favorite brand of the Romantik Hotel group

Founded in 1776 under a different name, the champagne house came under the expert control of Louis Roederer in 1833. As an entrepreneur with high aesthetic requirements, the new owner had his own vision. He planned the extension of the cultivation area, in order to be able to control all stages of the wine production. Thus he created a unique style, esprit, and taste. Today, Louis Roederer is one of the last large independent family owned champagne houses.
